ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN AND VICE-CHAIRMAN

December 1, 1994

Chairman Schneider began stating the floor was open for nominations.

Commissioner Gisclair: Mr. Chairman, I would like to nominate Captain Pete for Chairman.

Chairman Schneider: Okay, Captain Pete. How about Vice-Chairman?

Commissioner Gisclair: Are we going to take them both together or one at a time?

Chairman Schneider: It is open for nominations, I am just trying to get all of the nominations. You are right, excuse me.

Commissioner Jones: Mr. Chairman, I would like to make a substitute nomination.

Chairman Schneider: You can make any nomination you want.

Commissioner Jones: And, that is that you remain Chairman and that Mr. Cormier remain Vice-Chairman.

Chairman Schneider: We are just going to do Chairman right now.

Commissioner Jones: Well, I made that nomination as it is.

Chairman Schneider: Substitute nomination has been, myself as Chairman and J.B. Cormier as Vice-Chairman. Are there any other nominations. We will accept them in any form apparently. Is there a motion the nominations be closed?

Commissioner Cormier: So moved.

Chairman Schneider: Is there a second?

Commissioner Hanchey: I second it.

Chairman Schneider: All those in favor of the substitute nomination of myself as Chairman and J.B. as Vice-Chairman, say aye. (Aye - Commissioner Jones, Commissioner Cormier, Commissioner Hanchey and Chairman Schneider. Nay - Commissioner Vujnovich, Commissioner Gisclair and Commissioner Mialjevich.) It is four to three in favor of the substitute motion. The list of officers will stay as it is.
